

Approach to Reporting

The contents in this report were selected and disclosed based on their substantiality, integrity and balance principle, and taking into account the concerns of stakeholders and the Company's great influence on the society. They exert substantial impact on the Company's sustainable development.

1. The Company pays close attention to the views of its stakeholders, and collects their comments through community visits, periodical reports, field study and online communication. It makes suggestions on the topics of the report by taking into account stakeholders' major concerns.

2. We assess the Company's sustainable development strategy and cover major social, economic and environmental events related to our strategies, risks and opportunities.

3. We refer to the social responsibility initiatives and standards proposed by NGOs for topic selection. These include ISO26000 (Guidance on Social Responsibility).

4. Topics are selected based on the comprehensive assessment of stakeholders' concerns and their impact on the Company's strategies. The time span and the scope of impact for each specific topic are clearly defined to ensure the accuracy of the information disclosed.
